Lone Oak Driving club races, at fair grounds, July 4, 1:30 p. m.

Alleging that her husband, J. B. Parrish, deserted her, Golda Parrish yesterday filed a complaint for divorce in the circuit court. The care and custody of one child, the issue of the marriage, is asked by the plaintiff.

The following companies have applied for either articles of incorporation or for dissolution: Oregon Fess System Company, of Portland, for $5000; Oregon Sales Company, of Portland, dissolution; Democrat Publishing Company, of Albany, dissolution; Tip-Top Auto Company, of Hood River, dissolution; Kelson Lumber Company, of Portland, dissolution; Forest Brothers & Worth Company, of Portland, dissolution; Astoria Lumber Company, of Astoria, dissolution; Washington Realty Company, of Salem, decrease.

An application has been received by the railroad commission from the United Telephone Company, of Aurora, asking permission to discontinue its service in that town. The application is the outcome of the stepping in of the Mutual Telephone Company, which has taken away much of the business of the United. The United company sought to discontinue its service sometime back, but the town council would not permit them to do so unless they filed an application with the railroad commission.

Governor Hiram Johnson, of California, has requested Governor West to turn over to that state A. L. Morris, wanted on a charge of passing a fictitious check on a firm in San Francisco. Morris is now being held in Portland waiting the arrival of the necessary papers from the governor.

The resignation of Martin Langguth, engineer at the state house, took effect today, and the old soldier must look for another job. The resignation of Langguth was made at the request of Secretary of State Olcott, who contended that Langguth's work was not up to standard.

Sheriff Each left yesterday for Ellensburg, Wash., where he will take charge of A. D. Dunn, alias Tony, who is wanted in Woodburn on the charge of fraud. The chief of police of Ellensburg arrested Dunn at the request of Sheriff Each. The prisoner is accused by different Woodburn citizens of beating them out of about $700.

Dora E. Ingle yesterday commenced action for divorce in the circuit court against Fred W. Ingle. The allegations in the complaint are to the effect that the defendant treated the plaintiff in a cruel and inhuman manner. Mrs. Ingle asks that a decree be rendered granting her an absolute divorce, and further judgment of $50 per month as permanent alimony.

Within the next few days seven million feet of logs will be collected at this point by the Spaulding Logging Company, and boomed for future consumption. The big drive is coming from the Santiam district, and the waters at Salem will soon be filled with lumber material. This is the largest number of logs to be boomed here.

It is suggested by a number of local citizens that some one about the new armory get busy and shine up the old cannon which is stationed in front of the building on Ferry street. That piece of artillery is sadly in need of care in so far as its general appearance is concerned, and that it does not add to the structural beauty of the new building goes without saying.

In order that a comic parade worth the occasion may be held, the managers of the comic parade for the Cherry Fair have issued a set of prizes for the best comic feature that enters the parade to be held on next Saturday night. For the best feature gotten up by any person a prize of $15 will be given, for the second best $7.50 and for the third best $3.50. The managers have also consented to give a prize of $10 for the best comic feature produced by any of the firms in town. The Canoe Club, the Y. M. C. A. and several others have already signified their intentions of taking part in the parade.

The regular quarterly inspection and muster of Company M. O. N. G., was held last evening at the armory, and all preparations for the annual encampment were made. The members of the company were also instructed to appear at the armory Friday morning to participate in the Fourth of July parade.

The following men received non-commissioned officers' ranks as the result of the recent examinations: Bert E. Lewis, Leonard Judson and George Schreiber were promoted to be sergeants, and Private Herbert Aikins advanced to corporal. Lewis Judson, who has been acting first sergeant since First Sergeant Walter G. Pearmain quit the service, was made first sergeant on an order issued by Captain Max H. Gehlbach.

"GETS-IT" Chases Corns Alright!

Easy as One, Two, Three; No Fuss, No Pain, by Using "GETS-IT". Just take two seconds to put a little "GETS-IT" on that corn. That corn is "done for" as sure as the sun rises.

"We Can Dance All Night and Our Corns Won't Hurt. We Both Use 'GETS-IT'—It Gets Corns Every Time Dead Sure!"

The corn shrivels up, vanishes. That's the surprise you get by using this new plan corn cure. There's nothing to stick to the stocking or sock; your corn pains stop. You're saved the bother of applying plasters that make the corn bulge out from the shoe. You're saved the pain of pulling the corn out with a knife; no more fussing with bandages. You don't have to help by picking and dragging out your corns, or cutting with knives or razors.

"GETS-IT" is safe, painless, stops pain, never hurts healthy flesh. It is guaranteed. Try it on warts, calluses and bunions, too.

"GETS-IT" is sold at all druggists' at 25 cents a bottle, or sent direct by E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago.
